Groundbreaking Ceremony Celebrates Start of Construction on Humboldt Bay Trail South, Which Will Finally Connect Eureka and Arcata

City Manager Miles Slattery and Arcata City Manager Karen Diemer (holding signs for their respective cities) celebrated the groundbreaking of Humboldt Bay Trail South with a “ribbon-tying” ceremony, accompanied by a range of stakeholders including state and local officials, community volunteers, businesspeople and others.

After decades of dreaming, planning and lots of work to overcome bureaucratic hurdles, Humboldt County will soon have a paved multi-use trail connecting Eureka and Arcata along the banks of Humboldt Bay. Click here for complete article.
