

NEWS RELEASE

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATELY

(Seattle, WA – January 30, 2015) Officials from Green Diamond Resource Company's Mark E. Reed Scholarship board announced recently that the 2015 scholarship application cycle for Washington, Oregon and California boards will begin on February 1, 2015.

The scholarship program was established in 1947 in memory of Mark E. Reed who served as president of Simpson Logging Company from 1914 to 1933. Mr. Reed played a significant role in the history and development of our timberlands and also influenced the education of many young individuals. The Washington, Oregon and California boards award a limited number of scholarships in the amount of $3,000 each.

For information on student eligibility, please visit Green Diamond's website at www.greendiamond.com and review the information relating to the state you are located in. Eligible applicants should fill out the Qualification and Application forms and mail them to the appropriate scholarship board.

Questions may be directed to Washington State: Diana Goldy, secretary of the Washington Scholarship Board, at 360-427-4703 or e-mail to dgoldy@greendiamond.com.

Oregon: Ursula Walters, secretary of the Oregon Scholarship Board at 541-880-5492 or e-mail at ursula.walters@greendiamond.com.

California: Tish Osborne, secretary of the California Scholarship Board at 707.668.4446 or e-mail to tosborne@greendiamond.com.

The deadline for receiving all applications is Friday, February 27, 2015.

Green Diamond Resource Company is a privately held forest products company that owns and manages working forest lands in Washington, Oregon, and California. Learn more about Green Diamond Resource Company at www.greendiamond.com. In Washington, the company's forest lands are independently certified under the Sustainable Forestry Initiative® (SFI) standard. In California, Green Diamond's forest lands are independently certified to Forest Stewardship Council (FSC®) standards.

###