GOLDSWORTHY APPOINTED POLICY MANAGER AT GREEN DIAMOND RESOURCE COMPANY

(November 12, 2021 - KORBEL, Calif.) Elicia Goldsworthy was recently appointed Forest Policy and Communications Manager for Green Diamond Resource Company's California Operations, according to company officials. She replaces Gary Rynearson, who will retire in January of 2022 after a long and distinguished career in the timber industry.

Goldsworthy is based at Green Diamond offices in Korbel, Calif., where she will provide forest policy leadership in governmental and regulatory arenas. In addition, she will provide direction for community engagement and managing Green Diamond's Forest Stewardship Council® Forest Management Standard certification program.

Goldsworthy held various positions at resource management organizations and forestry companies before starting at Green Diamond as Senior Botanist in 2016, advancing to Silviculture Investment Manager in 2019. She holds a Master of Science degree in Forestry Sciences and a Bachelor's in Natural Resource Management from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo. She is a Registered Professional Forester in the state of California. "Elicia is a strong and thoughtful leader with professional experience that combines practical in the woods experience and an in-depth knowledge of the forest practice rules. I look forward to working with Elicia in this new capacity," said Jason Carlson, Vice President and General Manager for Green Diamond Resource Company's California Operations.

Goldsworthy is active in the California Licensed Foresters Association and the Redwood Tree Improvement Cooperative. She is a Prescribed Burn Association representative at the Humboldt County Fire Safety Council.
